J. H. CRIST .. Skidmore, Mo.

FOREWORD

J. H. Crist belongs to that sturdy class of practical farmers and stockmen attracted to the breeding of Short-horns during the past few years. The earnestness with which he has sought to establish a valuable breeding herd is reflected by the persistency with which he has bought sale topping females. It was he who bought the $7,100 Fair Beauty. To this herd went the top females in three sales of the late Iowa-Missouri circuit. From such a herd it has been reasonably easy to select an offering worthy of attention by careful buyers. Only one bull is listed, a tried sire, that should continue in use in some good herd. Herd bull buyers will find much to interest them in the great prospects that sell with their dams, particularly the sons of Village Supreme, King Abbot, a grandson of Best of Goods, and Radium. Cows that will add to the attractiveness of any herd are listed, and the array of bred and open heifers forms one of the features of the sale. Buyers are urged not to overlook the importance of this event. It is a Saturday sale, which means a reduction in the attendance. Bargains will be numerous.

WALTER L. MILLER,
In the Breeders Gazette of June 5.
